

ICFC 2017

International Conference on Food Contaminants

Climate change and food safety: challenges in the near future

The University of Minho, the National Institute of Health Dr. Ricardo Jorge and the Organizing Committee invite you to join the second International Conference on Food Contaminants (ICFC2017) in Braga, from the 13th to the 14th of July 2017.

The two days meeting will provide an excellent opportunity to present and discuss cutting-edge knowledge on Climate Changes and their impact on Food Safety issues, gathering topics such as Chemical Contaminants Occurrence and Surveillance, Emerging Chemical Contaminants In Foods, and Risk Analysis And Food Safety Control Systems.

You can submit your abstracts and registration directly through our web form available at www.icfc2017.uminho.pt. The abstract submission deadline is April 28th 2017.

An issue of the journal Food Additives & Contaminants: Part A will be dedicated to this conference, and authors are encouraged to submit their work to this journal.

We hope you can join us in this event, and wish you a very pleasant stay in Braga and in Portugal.

Sincerely,

Armando Venâncio, Luís Abrunhosa & Paula Alvito
